MR. ROBERT S. MCQUADE

Mr. Robert S. McQuade is the Executive Director, Cyberspace Capabilities Center (CCC), a direct reporting unit to Air Combat Command, at Scott Air Force Base, Illinois. The CCC serves as the Air Force's front door for all cyber & information technology requirements. In collaboration with Headquarters Air Combat Command, 16th Air Force and the Air Force Life Cycle Management Center, the CCC provides data-driven, decision-quality information and technical expertise required to design, develop and deploy air, space and cyberspace systems and capabilities into the cyberspace domain. Utilizing an innovative industry standard framework, Information Technology Service Management, the Center strengthens the Air Force's network by supporting enterprise services such as messaging, collaboration, video/voice, mobile, and data protection to equip today and tomorrow's warfighter with the network they need.
